Theater at Monmouth Holds Maine EPAs and General Auditions

Theater at Monmouth will hold its annual EPAs and General Auditions in Maine on Monday, December 10 from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. in Helen Melledy Hall, 775 Main Street, Monmouth, ME. NYC EPA's will be held on Thursday, January 3 from 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. at the Actors' Equity Audition Center; appointments for the NYC EPA should be made through AEA directly.

Theater at Monmouth seeks energetic and dynamic performers for the 2019 Summer Repertory Season as well as other projects throughout the year. Summer Repertory contracts run 10-11 weeks from June 11 through August 18 and include housing (for non-residents of Maine) and weekly stipend. We're looking for theatre professionals who would like to join a strong ensemble company and are interested in teamwork, collaboration, and artistic growth in a creatively-charged environment in a beautiful rural community in central Maine. Performers of all ages, ethnic and racial backgrounds, and gender identification are strongly encouraged to audition.

The 2019 Summer Season includes: Murder for Two directed by Adam P. Blais; Shakespeare's Hamlet directed by Dawn McAndrews and Merry Wives of Windsor directed by Catherine Weidner; Ken Ludwig's Baskerville: A Sherlock Homes Mystery directed by Matthew Arbour; Lynn Nottage's Intimate Apparel directed by Josiah Davis, and The Jungle Book directed by Ryan Vincent Anderson. TAM's Fall Show will be Jane Austen's Sense and Sensibility directed by Dawn McAndrews. First performance is June 22 and the Summer Rep closes on August 18. Each actor in the summer company plays three or four roles; all shows are rehearsed and performed in repertory. The summer season operates on an LOA to LORT contract with Actors' Equity and union rules followed for Equity and non-Equity actors. Internships are also available.

TAM's summer season is a true ensemble of more than 50 theatre artists from all over the country. We perform in Cumston Hall, a 250-seat Victorian opera house; rehearsals take place in the recently renovated Grange Hall.
