WHAT DREAMS MAY COME

Dear Friends,

To celebrate 50 years of Theater at Monmouth's commitment to classic theatre, we have an exciting lineup of shows—some old, some new, all classics. If you have not yet experienced the incredible range of an entire TAM season, our 50th Anniversary is a perfect time to see why your friends and neighbors call TAM their favorite destination for theatre in Maine. With a wide variety of shows in our intimate and historic theatre, in addition to affordable prices and discounts, it's no wonder that TAM draws audiences from Maine's 16 counties, 36 states, and six countries. Become a Season Pass Holder for our What Dreams May Come season and help make those dreams a reality!

In my time as Producing Artistic Director, it's been my personal mission to foster a more diverse, more inclusive, more welcoming environment for audiences and artists alike—to educate young minds, engage patrons with new and differing points of view, and to program seasons that represent a range of perspectives, beliefs, and circumstances. By reflecting on our role as a company committed to community we hold ourselves accountable for the ever-evolving worldview we share with our audience. I believe our programming and personnel have begun to reflect that mission. We look to the past to shape our future, and with our What Dreams May Come Season, we look to you to help us build the foundation for 50 more years of dynamic, thought-provoking, and compassionate art-making.

We'll continue to make classic theatre inviting for everyone with great art and engaging dialogues. If you are entertained, excited, or enlightened by your experience at the theatre, please consider coming a little deeper into the fold of the TAM family by becoming a subscriber, making a tax-deductible donation to support our nonprofit mission, or simply returning for more theatre.

I look forward to sharing this Golden Anniversary Season with each and every one of you!

The Merry Wives of Windsor

The Merry Wives of Windsor

July 4 – August 18

by William Shakespeare

Directed by Catherine Weidner

In Shakespeare's only domestic comedy, laughter reigns supreme and feminine wisdom triumphs over jealous husbands, confused lovers, and one corpulent knight. Falstaff arrives in Windsor in need of money. Instead of getting a job, he plots to woo not one, but two wealthy women. Disguises and complications abound as the women teach Falstaff a lesson with manipulative messengers, secret scandals, and a flurry of forgiveness.

KEN LUDWIG'S
BASKERVILLE
A SHERLOCK HOLMES MYSTERY

Baskerville

A Sherlock Holmes Mystery

July 11 – August 15

by Ken Ludwig

Directed by Matthew Arbour

Sherlock Holmes and Dr. Watson must crack the mystery of The Hound of the Baskervilles before a family curse dooms its newest heir. Watch as our intrepid investigators try to escape a dizzying web of clues, silly accents, disguises, and deceit as five actors deftly portray more than 40 characters. Can our heroes discover the truth in time? Join the fun and see how far from “elementary” the truth can be.

HAMLET

Hamlet

July 18 – August 17

by William Shakespeare

Directed by Dawn McAndrews

In the wake of his father's abrupt death, Hamlet returns home to find his personal and political world turned upside down—his mother remarried, his uncle on the throne, and a world seemingly gone insane. When his father's ghost appears and demands vengeance, the desperate Danish prince must decide: submit or resist. Accept or avenge. Live or die.

Intimate APPAREL

Intimate Apparel
July 25 – August 16

by Lynn Nottage

Directed by Josiah Davis

In 1905, an African American seamstress supports herself by creating exquisite lingerie for wealthy Manhattan clients. When a letter arrives from a stranger, it awakens a desire within her that leads to the love that she's yearned for, but it is nothing like she expected. This historical romance by Pulitzer Prize-winning playwright Lynn Nottage creates a portrait of a young woman's determination and the true meaning of intimacy.

MURDER

for Two A New MUSICAL COMEDY

Murder for Two

June 22 – August 16

Book and Lyrics by Kellen Blair

Book and Music by Joe Kinosian

Directed by Adam P. Blais

Everyone is a suspect in Murder for Two, a hilarious musical murder mystery with a twist: One actor investigates the crime. The other plays all of the suspects. And they both play the piano! A zany blend of musical comedy and madcap mystery, this fast and funny whodunit is a highly theatrical duet loaded with killer laughs. The perfect blend of music, mayhem, and murder!

the Jungle Book

The Jungle Book
June 29 – August 15
adapted by Greg Banks from the stories of Rudyard Kipling
Directed by Dawn McAndrews

Follow the rambunctious and curious man cub Mowgli and his adopted jungle family: Baloo the Bear, Bagheera the panther, and all the beasts who call the mysterious wilderness home. This fast-paced retelling keeps audiences at the edge of their seats as Mowgli tries to escape the clutches of the evil Shere Kahn and find the true meaning of home.

Sense and Sensibility

Sense and Sensibility

September 12 – 22

by Jane Austen

Adapted and Directed

by Dawn McAndrews

Reason and passion collide in Jane Austen's beloved tale of sisterhood and romance. Marianne and Elinor Dashwood could not be more different. Marianne is exuberant, impetuous, and recklessly romantic. Elinor is practical, thoughtful, and confoundingly reserved. Through a series of romantic misadventures the girls come to realize that the key to happiness may not lie in fiery passion or strict reason—but somewhere in between.
